Participants: Active and reserve forces from NATO countries, police, Technical Assistance Work (THW), fire department, and civilian teams with military experience are invited. A team consists of 3 to 4 persons (m/f).

Due to the fact that the various stations are conducted in either French, German or English, it is highly recommended that at least one team member understands one of these languages.

The exercise comprises: March of +/-25 km, Orientating with the help of a map, compass, sketches and other means.

Overcoming of (natural and artificial) obstacles,
map reading,
sport competition and endurance and general military knowledge.

The competition will be held, regardless of the weather!!

Rating: The rating results from the various tests, the required march time and the orientating problems while on the course. Each participating team will receive an individual result. For the accomplishment of the march course, an ideal time will be calculated. If a team exceeds this ideal time by 2 hours, the team will be excluded. Change to the prize conferment: only trophies will be awarded, certificates and medal will not be given.

Clothing, material, rations: Utility or field uniform as conforms to national regulations. Eventual sport clothing must be dark.

Not allowed are sport shoes or bright, colorful sport clothing.

The carrying of firearms or bayonets is forbidden. Not allowed is the use of electronic night vision or radio devices. The organizer will provide a map (1:20.000) and a stamp pad.

Items to bring along: a compass, map triangle, writing material, flashlight (red or green light) and other useful items.

At the start, each team participant will receive a march ration. Lunch on Saturday begins at 12:00 hours and breakfast on Sunday (included in the registration fees) begins at 07:30 hours.

Possibility for sleeping: The possibility exists to sleep in a heated room and in tents due to the COVID-19 situation. A field cot and a sleeping bag is an individual responsibility. Showers and toilets are available (m/f).

Discipline and responsibility:

- Participation is at your own risk. The participants accept civil and legal responsibility for all caused damage.
- The team chief is responsible for his/her teams discipline.
- Serious misconduct can lead to the entire team being disqualified.
Serious misconduct is considered:
 - Unfitting behavior to the organizer or other participants
 - Use of smuggled material (maps, documents, GPS)
 - Disregarding traffic and civil laws

Everyone must provide their personal home information for tracking purposes in case of a COVID infection.
